

Need Help With Your Job Search or With Training Costs?

Wisconsin Works (W-2) and/or FoodShare Employment & Training (FSET) Programs may be able to help!

The FSET & W2 Programs can help you:

- Update your resume
 - Develop new job skills
 - Find you a job or find you a better job
 - Assist you in obtaining GED/HSED, Associate's degree or Technical Certificate
 - W-2 program can also help if you are applying for SSI

FSET is a free program that helps FoodShare members build their skills and find a job. To enroll in FSET, you must qualify for FoodShare benefits through the state.

W2 is a work program for adults willing to engage in work activities. You must have minor children in the home to qualify for the program. With the W-2 Program, you may be eligible for a monthly cash payment while you participate in activities.
